Proclamation

WHEREAS, since our Nation's founders have turned to prayer for inspiration, strength and guidance. In times of trial, we ask God for wisdom. As we observe this National day of Prayer, we call upon the Almighty to continue to bless America and her people; and

WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer is an opportunity for people of all faiths to join in prayer to give thanks for Blessings received, to request healings for wounds endured and to ask God to guide our leaders and bring wholeness to the United States and her citizens; and

WHEREAS, God has Blessed our Nation beyond measure. We give thanks for our families and loved ones, for the abundance of our land and the fruit of our labor, and

WHEREAS, we give thanks for the men and women of our military, who are fighting to defend our Nation and the future of civilization, and for those who have previously served; and

WHEREAS, we proudly salute our distinguished members of the Plainfield Concerned Urban Clergy, under the leadership of Bishop George Benbow, for their collective work in serving this community. As we celebrate our theme, "America Unite In Prayer", may God continue to Bless you while you share your Blessings with others; and

Now, Therefore, I, Sharon M. Robinson-Briggs, Mayor of the City of Plainfield, do hereby proclaim May 3, 2007 as National Day Of Prayer in the City of Plainfield, and I ask that all join me in celebration of this spiritual event.
