

City of Plainfield Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

“IN CELEBRATION OF “ROBERT MARTIN”

WHEREAS, The City of Plainfield is very proud of the community service of Boy Scout Robert Martin who has exhibited a sense of commitment and dedication to working with Plainfield’s residents. We respectfully salute him for his effort; and

WHEREAS, today, we say “thank you” to a very special young man, who for over seven (7) years, has been a member of Boy Scout Troop #5, which is the oldest Troop in Central, New Jersey. This Troop has been under the very dedicated leadership of Scoutmaster Carl Foerster for the past thirty (30) years; and

WHEREAS, Robert is the recipient of twenty one (21) Merit Badges, and for completing his community project of converting a room at the United Presbyterian Church into a ESL (English as a Second Language) Lab, which improved the quality of life for many, he has earned the highest rank in Boy Scouts. Through Robert’s loyalty, dedication and community spirit, he is the “50th Eagle Scout”. Eagle Scout Robert Martin is one of Plainfield’s leaders, and a person who all young people should emulate, as he exemplifies our city’s theme of “Growth By Unity”; and THEREFORE, I, Sharon M. Robinson-Briggs, Mayor of the City of Plainfield, do hereby declare June 10, 2007, as “Eagle Scout Robert Martin Day”. Congratulations.
